

Mr Stephen Fox BEd (Hons) - Headteacher

7th September 2020

Dear Parents and Carers,

Friday 18th September is Jeans for Genes Day. This charity helps to support the thousands of children from across the UK who live with genetic disorders. On this day, pupils can come into school dressed in denim bottoms. They will need to wear usual uniform on top (shirt and tie or gold polo shirt). Children should bring a £1 donation to school for this day.

If children would like to raise some extra money for the charity we have sponsorship forms in school: ask your child's class teacher. There are lots of ideas on the Jeans for Genes website www.jeansforgenesday.org/getinvolved/primaryschools#fundraisingideas

We look forward to seeing you in your denim.
